Dedication

We the Senior class of 1960 dedicate the Marian to Sister M. Linus.

Sister Linus was the sponsor for the first graduating class of St. Mary's in 1940. Twenty years later we find her sponsor for the last graduating class in the present St. Mary's High School building.

We wish to thank her for her untiring teaching efforts in preparing us for the future.

"Now We

Launch"

CLASS OF 1960

On September 4, 1956, thirty-eight freshmen set sail on a new and exciting voyage. First to take the wheel was Susan Gastel, receiving careful assistance from Marilyn Gibson. Anne Koppers was the chief recorder of new discoveries and Barbara Harmon collected the crews' funds. Achievements were due to the expert leadership of Sister M. Teresita. Joining the crew as newcomers were five smiling faces: Margaret Stahl, Agnes Falliaux, Charles Meyer, Shirley Doyle, and Charles McHenry. In the first few months, Rosemary Amershek made her debut as cheerleader and Elizabeth Jeck and Marilyn Gibson began their careers as majorettes. Rivals for royalty were annual attendants, Elizabeth Jeck and Kenneth Powell. Sportsmen among the crew were football players: Bartelli, Clugston, Fleming, Friend, Gilmore, McNeill, Palmer, Row, Sampson, and Schirk. Shooting for the baskets were Berk, Fleming, Gilmore, and Schirk. Running the bases was Bob Fleming.

As time rolled on we found we were no longer known as "green freshies," but had now advanced to the rank of sophomores. Taking charge of the steering was Marilyn Gibson aided by Ken Bartelli, under the guidance of Sister M. Luke. Ron Gilmore was now registrar of events and Bob Fleming collected funds. On stopping at the first port, we lost seven crew members (Michele Gendusa, Janet Cronister, Janice Cronister, Shirley Doyle, Agnes Falliaux, Mary Dell Sharp, and Charles McHenry), but we received five new ones (LeAnn Vance, Bill Dorsey, Connie Pedro, Matthew Komac, and Judy Krasovec). Robert Meyer, a shipmate very dear to the hearts of each of us was called to his eternal reward on January 6, 1958. In addition to beginning talents, we took great pride in new celebrities: Del Bartelli, Homecoming attendant; Maxine Ray and Kenneth Powell, annual attendants; Elizabeth VanBecelaere, Cheerleader; and Elizabeth Jeck, Anne Koppers, and Sandra Mobley, newly initiated Thespians. M.B.L. champion football players were Bartelli, Clugston, Fleming, Friend, Gilmore, McNeill, Palmer, Powell, Row, Sampson, and Schirk. Cagers were Clugston, Fleming, Gilmore, and Schirk. Baseball interests attracted Fleming, Palmer, Row, and Schirk. As May '58 disappeared, we had sailed through the second channel of high school life.

Keeping us on our course in the junior year was Mike Boone, with Louis Bourlard ready to take over when necessary. Anne Koppers recorded the happenings and Lenore Kavanagh was responsible for funds. Class sponsor for this section of the journey was Sister M. Cleophas. Two new members joined the crew. They were Raymond Ebbs and John Trytek; while we also lost two, Matthew Komac and Judy Krasovec. Gridiron squad claimed Bartelli, Boone, Clugston, Fleming, Friend, Gilmore, McNeill, Palmer, Powell, Row, Sampson, and Schirk. Nancy Wilbert also took up the majorette career. Del Bartelli was again chosen Homecoming attendant and Maxine Ray and Kenneth Powell were attendants to the annual royalty. Girl and Boys Staters were Sandra Mobley, Bob Fleming, and Ron Gilmore. The Mock and the Junior-Senior banquet were our major social boasts.

As our voyage neared its end, Mike Boone again took over as navigator, ably assisted by Jim Schirk. Sandra Mobley recorded the notes and Lenore Kavanagh collected dues. Those leaving the crew since last year were Ron Gilmore who is now in the seminary in Elkhorn, Nebraska, and John Trytek and Connie Pedro; but those joining on the trip were Jim Louderback and Marion Carothers. At the end of the first semester, those leaving the voyage were Marion Carothers, Elizabeth VanBecelaere, and Sharon Cronister. Football stars were Bartelli, Clugston, Fleming, Friend, Palmer, Row, Sampson, and Schirk. The lone basketball star was Bob Fleming. Maxine Ray and Kenneth Powell were saluted annual royalty. Marilyn Gibson took the lead as drum majorette. The long awaited night finally arrived and Del Bartelli was crowned Homecoming queen. Marilyn Gibson and Del Bartelli were co-editors of the Marian: and Sandra Mobley, editor of the Marianette. Lana Adamson was May Queen, with Elizabeth Jeck and Karen Benelli attendants. Elizabeth Jeck led the band as student director, and Karen Benelli was prexy of the pep club. Anne Koppers headed the Dramatics club as president and Sandra Mobley was Sodality prefect. Taking charge of the CYC, under the guidance of Father Prichard were Bob Fleming, President; Elizabeth Jeck, Vice-President; Del Bartelli, Secretary; and Bill Sampson, Treasurer.

On May 16, 1960, we packed our sport clothes and were on our way for a week of fun at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, under the capable sponsorship of Monsignor Stremel.

We came to the close of our voyage on May 29, 1960, under the helpful leadership of Sister M. Linus. We stepped from the ship into a big, wide, wonderful world, bidding heartfelt farewells to our shipmates, but carrying with us forever the memories of our high school days and taking seriously our class motto, "Now we launch, where do we anchor?"

"Where do we Anchor?"
